

City of Ann Arbor Implements Mainsaver Connect

San Diego, CA – September 12, 2017: Mainsaver Software continues to expand its Mobile CMMS footprint with a recent deployment of Mainsaver Connect at the City of Ann Arbor, Michigan Municipal Government. The city chose to implement Mainsaver Connect alongside its existing core Mainsaver application. This addition will allow their Maintenance Technicians, to process work orders and MRO transactions via mobile tablet computers. Using Connect, the city will move one step closer to going completely “paperless” with both their corrective and preventive work processing. In conjunction with the Connect application, the city has upgraded to the newest version of Mainsaver. This will further add to the efficiencies and effectiveness of their Maintenance team.

About City of Ann Arbor

Ann Arbor is a city in the U.S. state of Michigan and the county seat of Washtenaw County. The 2010 census recorded its population to be 113,934, making it the sixth largest city in Michigan.

Ann Arbor was founded in 1824, named for wives of the village's founders and the stands of Bur Oak trees. The University of Michigan moved from Detroit to Ann Arbor in 1837, and the city grew at a rapid rate in the early to mid-20th century. During the 1960s and 1970s, the city gained a reputation as a center for left-wing politics. Ann Arbor became a focal point for political activism and anti-Vietnam War movement, as well as various student movements.

Ann Arbor is home to the University of Michigan, one of the foremost research universities in the United States. The university shapes Ann Arbor's economy significantly as it employs about 30,000 workers, including about 12,000 in the medical center. The city's economy is also centered on high technology, with several companies drawn to the area by the university's research and development infrastructure, and by its graduates.
